Name: _____

Class _____

Roll No. _____

Parts 1-6. Choose the correct option for each:

Directions: In the following questions, a statement of Assertion (A) is given, followed by a corresponding statement of Reason (R). Choose the correct answer from the options below:

(a) Both A and R are true.

(b) Both A and R are false.

(c) A is true, but R is false.

(d) A is false, but R is true.

1. Assertion (A): Pollyanna's "Glad Game" requires a conscious effort to find a positive aspect even in seemingly negative situations.

Reason (R): The game was taught to her by her father and is a psychological mediator used to arouse hope and cope with stressful life events.

Answer: _____

2. Assertion (A): When Pollyanna is sent to live with her Aunt Polly, her aunt is immediately welcoming and excited to have a child in the house.

Reason (R): Miss Polly is initially portrayed as a stern and reclusive woman who reluctantly takes in her niece out of a sense of duty, not excitement or fondness.

Answer: _____

3. Assertion (A): Aunt Polly was very happy and greeted Pollyanna with a warm hug when they first met.

Reason (R): Aunt Polly was a very stern woman who took Pollyanna in only out of a sense of "duty".

Answer: _____

4. Assertion (A): The little girl was the only person who was not afraid during the fierce storm.

Reason (R): She had strong faith that God's presence was on the ocean, just as it was on land, which gave her courage and peace.

Answer: _____

5. Assertion (A): When the captain shouted "We are lost!", the crew started shouting and running around in a panic.

Reason(R): The crew "shuddered there in silence" and were busy with their prayers, too scared to move or speak much, even the "stoutest" held his breath.

Answer: _____

6. Assertion (A): Mini and the Kabuliwala developed a warm friendship despite their significant differences in age, culture, and background.
